Revision: 1

The Attorney-General, Mr Gordon Ramsay MLA, seeks expressions of interest from qualified people for appointment as an ordinary member of the ACT Gambling and Racing Commission Governing Board to fill the following vacancy:

- A member who has knowledge, experience or qualifications related to providing counselling services to problem gamblers.

The ACT Gambling and Racing Commission (the Commission) is an independent statutory authority established under the Gambling and Racing Control Act 1999 (the Act). The Act provides for the continued administration of certain Acts relating to gambling and racing and establishes the powers, functions and activities of the Commission.

The Act provides that the Commission is to be controlled by a Governing Board of five members consisting of the Chief Executive Officer of the Commission and four part-time ordinary members (Chair, Deputy Chair and two other ordinary members). Members are appointed to the Board for a term of not more than three years.

Documents which provide further context to the Commission's role can be viewed below.
