A career in the Directorate offers great diversity so your experience can grow in many areas of interest. We employ staff across a broad range of expertise, including the following:

- accountants
- administrative officers
- fire fighters
- client services officers
- communication professionals
- courts officers and associates
- correctional officers
- drafters and editors
- human resource officers
- IT personnel
- librarians
- lawyers
- project officers for minor, major and capital works
- project officers for program delivery
- paramedics
- psychologists
- researchers

We promote a continuous learning environment by:

- Providing learning and development opportunities throughout each year.
- Providing a Study Assistance Scheme for employees aspiring to further their education.
- Receiving interns across a range of professions from education and research institutions.
- Participating in the ACT Government 12-month graduate development program to assist graduates from a range of disciplines.

We offer a diverse range of full-time, part-time, shift work and casual positions in locations across the ACT. We offer competitive rates of pay teamed with great working conditions. We even have our own Workplace Giving Fund.

Our staff say one of the big rewards they receive is having a direct impact on making their community a better, safer and more supportive one. They work together across the many areas of the Directorate to deliver personal support services and advocacy, a safer environment and a safer community, law reform and legislative services, a comprehensive justice system and mechanisms for independent review and complaint facilitation. They see the results of their efforts.

If you want a workplace that offers you:

- challenge and reward
- an employer that is community-focussed and secure
- a beautiful city with a cosmopolitan lifestyle
- a near rural setting with fresh air and free-flowing traffic, only a few hours from the mountains, the coast or the hustle and bustle of metropolitan cities

...then come work with us.
