Revision: 37

The Justice and Community Safety (JACS) Directorate is committed to giving the community greater access to government information.

Under the new Freedom of Information Act 2016, JACS strives to:

- Process information requests as quickly as possible
- Keep improving our processes to protect and provide access to information
- Use innovative ways to make sure information is available to the entire community

Searching for information

- Search JACS publications for Open Access Information or more broadly via the Open Access Website
- Apply for access to information under the Freedom of Information Act 2016
