Ministerial participation in national fora is important for the Territory's representation and contribution to the national agenda in a variety of areas relating to justice and community safety. The Department provides a range of support activities to the Attorney General and the Minister for Police and Emergency Services through various ministerial council arrangements.

Ministerial Council on Consumer Affairs (MCCA)

The role of MCCA is to consider consumer affairs and fair trading matters of national significance and, where possible, develop a consistent approach to those issues.

Visit the MCCA website for all information for consumers and business.

Ministerial Council for Corporations

The Ministerial Council for Corporations' principle function is to consider amendments to the legislation governing corporations and financial services, and the Australian Securities and Investments Commission.

The Ministerial Council for Police and Emergency Management - Police was established in 2006 following a change of name from the Australasian Police Ministers' Council (APMC).

Standing Committee of Attorneys-General (SCAG)

SCAG provides a forum for Federal, State and Territory Attorneys-General to discuss and progress matters of mutual interest. It aims to achieve uniform, harmonised actions within the portfolio responsibilities of its members.

In 2009 the Directorate hosted the 2009 meeting of SCAG and the Ministerial Council for Corporations. The meetings were attended by the Attorneys-General from the Commonwealth, all Australian states and territories, New Zealand and Norfolk Island.
