Hope and future mindedness

Our Priority Areas of Action

- Our families - are confident to access agencies and services
- Our primary school children - thrive at school - families and children engage regularly and consistently with school
- Our young people - thrive as confident, skilled and active members of their families and communities
- Our men - have a positive sense of identity and connection to family

The Justice Hub Port Adelaide

Our Elders (Granny Group) told us “we need a place to talk Justice”

- located within the Taoundi Aboriginal community college – (est 1974)
- Aboriginal community events attracts over 1000 people
- Red Cross is partnering with JRSA and Tiraapendi Wodli

The hub is supported by 3 staff Abbie (backbone coordinator to JRSA and hub)

- Debbie JR Project Manager (TW Exec Officer and community partners)
- Tatum Hub community development coordinator (Hub activities and community engagement)

The Tiraapendi Wodli Boxing Fitness

- FAST approach (Fixed Action Small Teams)
- 10 weeks - 4 hours per week
- 3 coaches - Fitness, Cultural and Employment
- 12 Agencies support and provide in-kind/sponsorship
- Aboriginal men 16 – 65 age (average session 6 men)
- Boxing fitness is the vehicle to motivate, establish routine, set structure and change the mindset to be work ready
